I want something reliable

I need an app to show the real time oil price

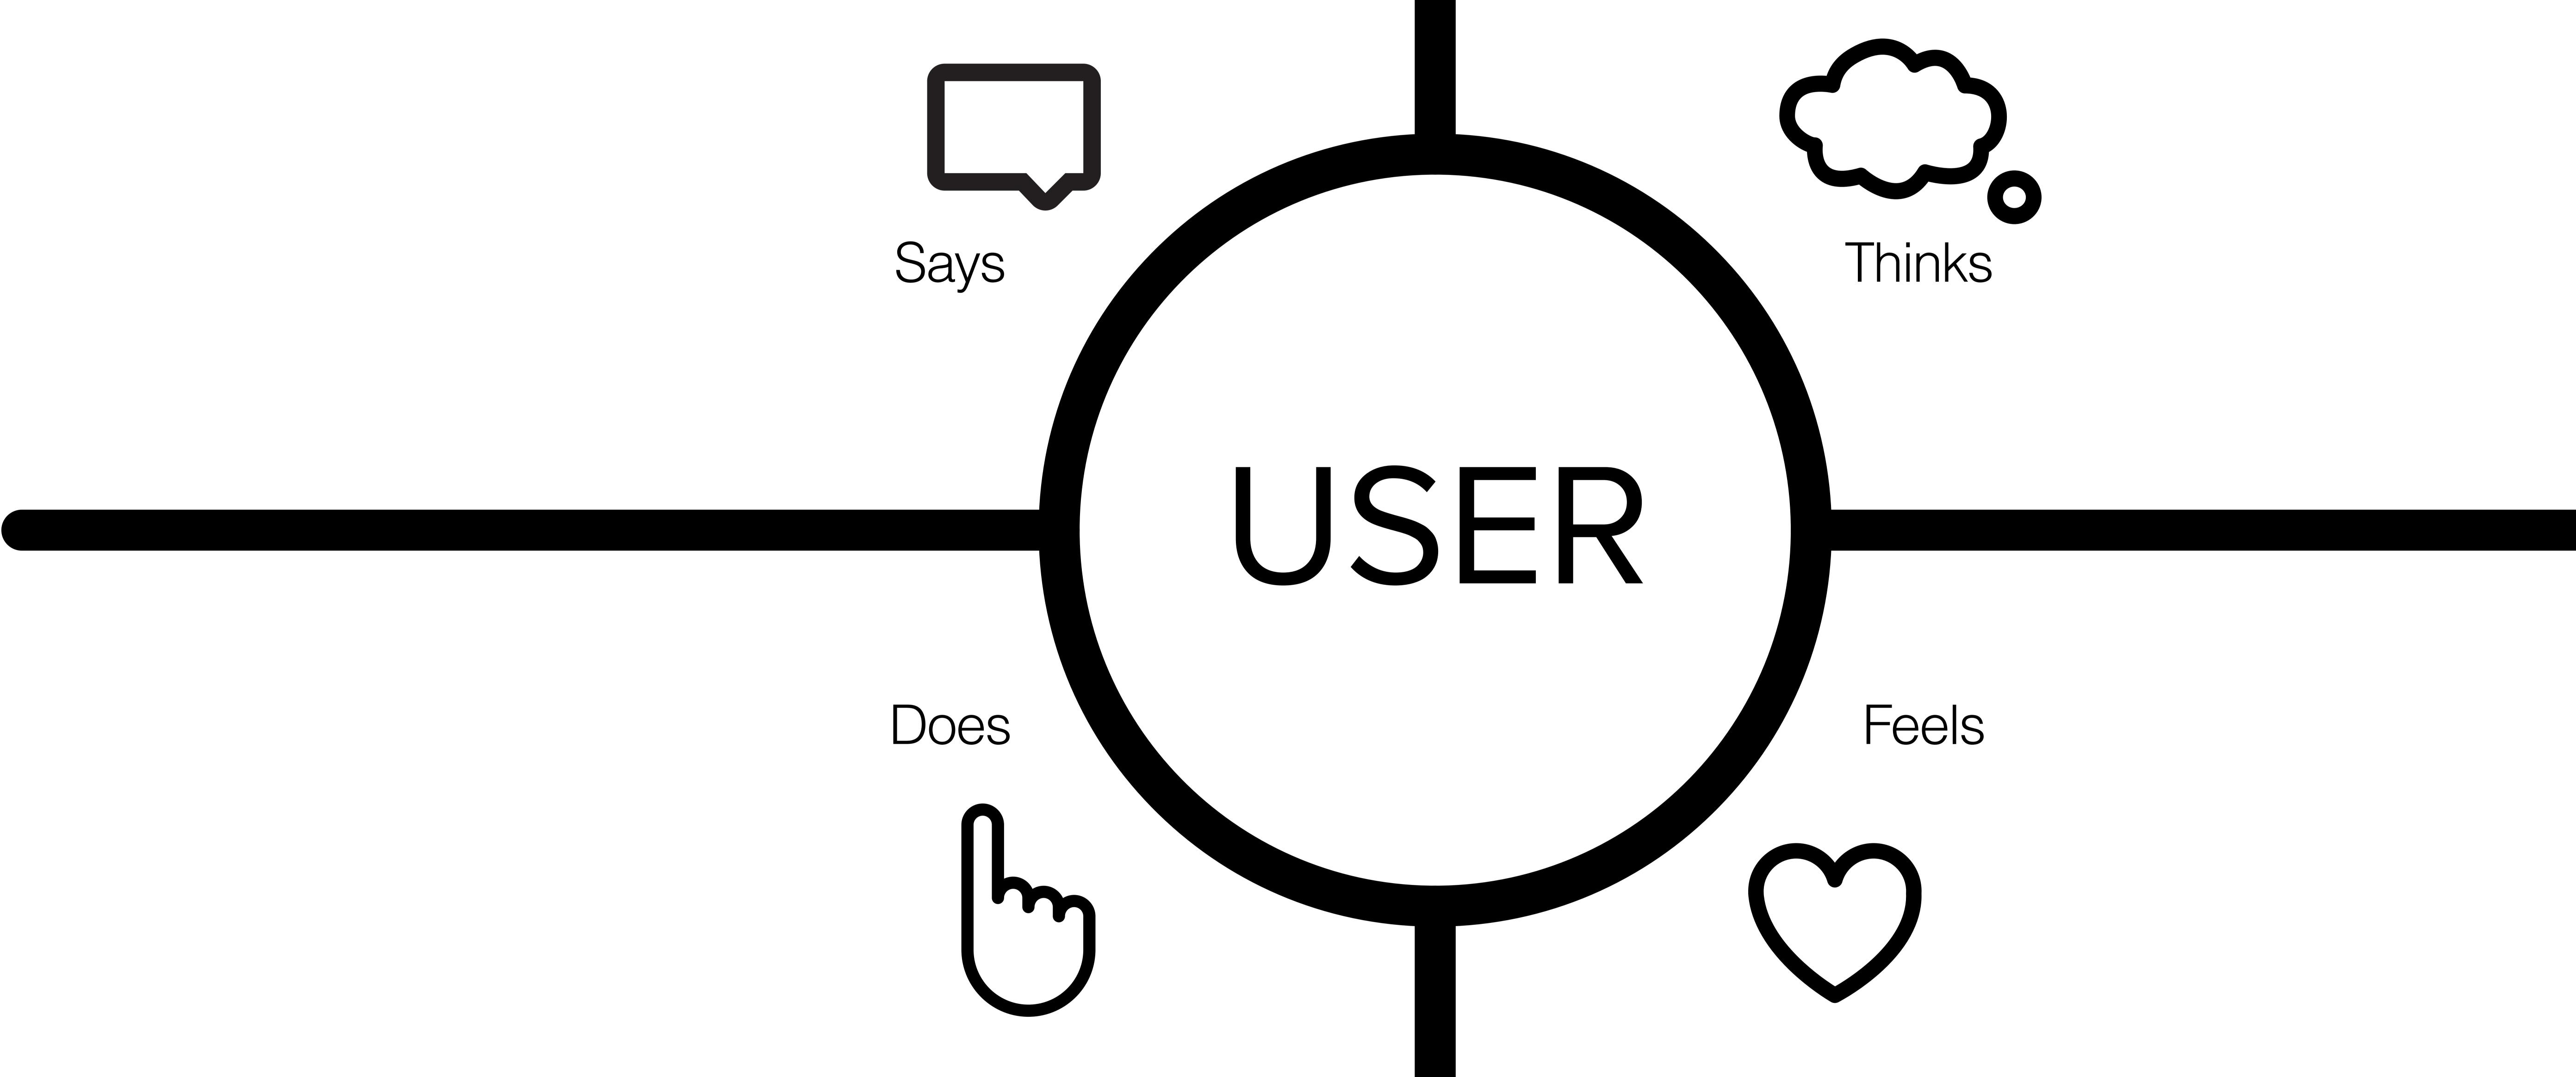

It should alert if there is a change.

Am I dumb for not understanding this?

Are these predictions true?

Can I trust this Predictions?

What is the least/most information and why?

Refreshes page several times to see the live price

A live Price Graph of previous Traded Price

User should able to create alerts

Checks prediction everyday

Fear

Anxiety

Impatient

Unsure to trust
